

appear to be of a Luiseno style, and have presented additional anthropological sources on Southern Californian Indian material culture. The Potrero site is a known sacred and ceremonial site used by the Pechanga Band, and the San Diego Historical Society has concluded the pipes from the Potrero site were misidentified as Chumash and are of Luiseno or Pechanga origin. Consultation with representatives of the Pechanga Band of Luiseno Mission Indians of the Pechanga Reservation also indicates these items are needed by traditional religious leaders for the practice of traditional Native American religion by present-day adherents.

Officials of the San Diego Historical Society have determined that, pursuant to 43 CFR 10.2 (d)(3), these seven cultural items are specific ceremonial objects needed by traditional Native American religious leaders for the practice of traditional Native American religions by their present-day adherents. Officials of the San Diego Historical Society have also determined that, pursuant to 43 CFR 10.2 (e), there is a relationship of shared group identity which can be reasonably traced between these items and the Pechanga Band of Luiseno Mission Indians of the Pechanga Reservation.

This notice has been sent to officials of the Pechanga Band of Luiseno Mission Indians of the Pechanga Reservation, Barona Group of the Capitan Grande Band of Mission Indians, Campo Band of Mission Indians, Capitan Grande Band of Mission Indians, Cuapaipa Band of Mission Indians, Inaja Band of Mission Indians, Jamul Band of Mission Indians, La Jolla Band of Mission Indians, La Posta Band of Mission Indians, Los Coyotes Band of Mission Indians, Manzanita Band of Mission Indians, Mesa Grande Band of Mission Indians, Pechanga Band of Luiseno Mission Indians of the Pechanga Reservation, Pauma Band of Mission Indians, Rincon Band of Mission Indians, San Pasqual Band of Mission Indians, Santa Ysabel Band of Mission Indians, Sycuan Band of Mission Indians, and Viejas Band of Mission Indians. Representatives of any other Indian tribe that believes itself to be culturally affiliated with these objects should contact Tammie Bennett, Registrar, San Diego Historical Society, P. O. Box 81825, San Diego, CA 92138; telephone (619) 232-6203, ext. 120, fax (619) 232-6297 before August 13, 1998. Repatriation of these objects to the Pechanga Band of Luiseno Mission Indians of the Pechanga Reservation may begin after that date if no additional claimants come forward.

The National Park Service is not responsible for the determinations within this notice.

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

Occupational Safety and Health Administration

[Docket No. ICR-98-12]

Construction Posting Requirements— Emergency Numbers and Floor Load Limits; Information Collection Requirements

AGENCY: Occupational Safety and Health Administration, Labor.

ACTION: Notice; opportunity for public comment.

SUMMARY: The Department of Labor, as part of its continuing effort to reduce paperwork and information collection burdens, is conducting a preclearance consultation program to provide the general public and Federal agencies with an opportunity to comment on both current and proposed collections of information in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3506(c)(2)(A)). This program helps to ensure that reporting burden (time and financial resources) is minimized, collection materials are clearly understood, impact of collection requirements on respondents can be accurately assessed, and requested data can be provided in the desired format. Currently, the Occupational Safety and Health Administration is soliciting comments concerning the collection of information requirements in § 1926.50(f) and § 1926.250(a)(2).

The Agency is particularly interested in comments that:

- Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of OSHA's responsibilities, including whether the information will have practical utility;
- Evaluate the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;
- Enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and
- Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology (for example, permitting electronic submissions of responses).

DATES: Written Comments must be submitted on or before September 14, 1998.

ADDRESSES: Comments are to be submitted to the Docket Office, Docket ICR-98-12, U.S. Department of Labor, Room N-2625, 200 Constitution Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20210, (202) 219-7894. Written comments limited to 10 pages or less may be transmitted by facsimile to (202) 219-5046.
